

OPEN LETTER to The Vatican
Synod on the Family
October 4, 2015

Church, like family, supposes mother, father and children. Family, church, is about dynamic, self-reflective consciousness. In family, in church, 'trimorphic resonance' is the way of authentic consciousness -- 'where two or more gather in God's Name', a third consciousness evolves from the consciousness of dialogueing -- what is complementarity in its root process.

Closed consciousness defeats complementarity; conscience supposes consciousness, consciousness supposes communication; communication supposes authentic family, woman/ man/ children holistically related (solidarity) in mutuality, complementarity and subsidiarity.

Male-exclusive hierarchy is antithetical to authentic consciousness, authentic conscience, authentic family, authentic church.

<http://ncronline.org/news/vatican/vatican-outlines-process-months-anticipated-synod-bishops>

Sylvester L. Steffen